1. Who helps you with reading at home?

Is there someone at home who helps you read or reads stories to you?

Her mother helped him learn to read. She used to read bedtime stories with him when he was little.

2. Do you get a bedtime story?

Do your parents or someone else read you a story before you go to sleep?

No.

3. Do you have your own phone or tablet?

Do you have your own phone or tablet? If yes, what kind of device is it?

Yes, he has his own phone, and he has access to his father laptop.

4. How much time can you spend on your phone or tablet?

Do your parents watch what you do on your phone or tablet? How long can you use it each day?

His parents do not watch the activity on his phone, and he does not have limited screen time. He is only allowed to play video games in weekends.

5. What kind of stories do you like the most?

Do you like exciting stories, fairy tales, or funny ones? What do you like best?

He likes adventure and science fiction stories.

6. What is your favorite fairy tale in the Fairytale Forest?

Do you have a favorite fairy tale in the Efteling's Fairytale Forest? Why do you like it so much?

The Dragon story was his favorite story but now he says he is too old for that.

7. Would you like to write your own fairy tale?

Have you ever tried to make up your own fairy tale? What kind of help would you want from a computer to write your story?

Yes, he tried to create his own story, as a cartoon adventure story.

Help of the computer:

To generate ideas

To turn the story, he writes into a video game.

8. Should a fairy tale always have a happy ending?

Do you think it's important that fairy tales always have happy endings? Or would you like them more if they sometimes had sad endings?

No, sometimes is good that the ending is not happy or sad.

9. Would you like fairy tale characters to talk to you?

If the characters in the Fairytale Forest could talk to you, would that make it more fun?

He answered "I guess"

10. What would you do if you met a talking tree?

Imagine you met a talking tree like the Fairytale Tree in real life, what would you do?

That would be funny. He would laugh.
